Question No.1

Maximum 150 men - it is a prerequisite for circular seating (round table)? This significantly reduces the number of commercial offers. In "theater style" is no such restriction

Answer No. 1

As indicated in the tender documents, "If for some of the required quantities proposer cannot submit an offer, he may exclude this quantity from his offer".

If 150 circular sitting cannot be offered by a venue which can offer other items – this particular sitting may be not offered.
