				<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Detailed manufacturer datasheets MUST be attached to the technical Bid Form. - In case of any deviation from the given products needs written detailed assurance that the products offered are of same or better quality and how they differ. This needs to be documented in detail in the offer since the manufacturer datasheets would not be sufficient. - OSCE requires a detailed table breakdown of technical details to allow easy identification if the alternative/equivalent products are suitable. If for instance a screen is 135cm instead of 128cm width the delta table needs to state 7cm wider to allow assessment if the screen can be fit.
