1. The Contractor shall be responsible for the technical and professional competence of its personnel, and will select, for the performance of any Services, suitably qualified and competent individuals.

2. The Contractor shall neither seek nor accept instructions from any authority external to the OSCE in connection with the performance of its obligations under the Contract. 3. While present at OSCE premises the Contractor’s personnel shall, at all times, comply with requests and instructions of relevant OSCE officials.

23. OSCE STAFF MEMBERS NOT TO BENEFIT

The Contractor shall not grant to any official of the OSCE any direct or indirect benefit or preferential treatment on the basis of the Contract or the award thereof. 3. Upon request by the OSCE, the Contractor shall promptly produce documentary evidence that any required policies are in force. Additionally, the Contractor shall promptly present to the OSCE any information concerning a reduction in insurance coverage.

4. If the Contractor fails to comply with its obligations under this Article, the OSCE shall be entitled to procure equivalent insurance and, without limitation, to deduct such costs from any sums due to the Contractor.

4. If it is later determined that the Contractor was not liable for any tax that was included in the Price paid by the OSCE, or that having paid any tax the Contractor is entitled to a refund, the OSCE shall have the right to deduct the full amount of excess charges by the Contractor from payments under one or more subsequent invoices; payment of such an adjusted amount shall constitute full payment by the OSCE. The Contractor shall be liable to the OSCE for the full amount of excess charges, and upon a written demand by the OSCE shall promptly return any amounts that are not offset by adjustments under this paragraph 4. This obligation shall survive the completion, expiration, cancellation or termination of the Contract.

30. WITHHOLDING OF PAYMENTS

Without prejudice to any other right or remedy the OSCE may have, the OSCE may withhold any payment or part(s) thereof to the Contractor to the extent necessary to protect the Organization from loss under the Contract on account of any breach or default by the Contractor. Any such withholding by the OSCE shall not affect the Contractor’s obligation to continue performance under the Contract. The OSCE shall inform the Contractor in writing of its intent to withhold payment. No interest shall accrue on payments withheld by the OSCE in accordance with this Article.

31. CURRENCY AND EXCHANGE RATES

1. Unless otherwise stipulated in the Contract or required by applicable law, each payment shall:
   (a) be made in Euro (EUR); or

The penalties for the delay may be deducted by the OSCE from any sum(s) due, or to become due, to the Contractor.
33. DELAY NOT ATTRIBUTABLE TO THE CONTRACTOR

If at any time the Contractor is delayed in providing the Deliverables or in fulfilling any other obligation under the Contract due to any cause beyond the Contractor’s reasonable control, including but not limited to Force Majeure, the OSCE may, by written notice, extend the Delivery Date(s) or fulfillment of any other obligation for such period of time as the OSCE grants at its sole discretion.

2. This Article shall include, without limitation, claims and liabilities relating to worker’s compensation or the infringement of intellectual property rights.

SECTION VII: TERMINATION

35. TERMINATION FOR CONVENIENCE

1. Unless otherwise stated in the Contract, the OSCE shall have the right to terminate the Contract at any time, in whole or in part, by serving a 30 (thirty) Day written notice to the Contractor.

2. In the event of termination under this Article the Contractor shall be paid, in accordance with the Prices, for Deliverables that have been provided and accepted by the OSCE and that remain unpaid. The Contractor may charge the OSCE for actual costs reasonably and properly incurred up to the date of termination by the OSCE under this Article, but in no case shall the total amount of payment to the Contractor exceed the aggregate Contract price. The Contractor shall have no claim for damages, compensation, loss of profit or otherwise except as provided in this paragraph.

   (a) impose penalties in accordance with Article 32 of these GCC;

   (b) by written notice, set a reasonable period of time for the Contractor to remedy its default; if the Contractor does not remedy its default within the additional period of time the OSCE may then terminate the Contract with immediate effect; or

   (c) by written notice to the Contractor, terminate the Contract immediately in whole or in such part or parts in respect of which the Contractor is in default. In this case the OSCE may engage another contractor to provide the Deliverables and recover from the Contractor any resulting additional costs.

37. TERMINATION FOR INSOLVENCY, BANKRUPTCY ETC.; NOTICE

1. Should the Contractor become insolvent or should control of the Contractor change by virtue of insolvency, the OSCE may with immediate effect and without prejudice to any other right or remedy available to it, suspend performance of the Contractor’s obligations or terminate the Contract with immediate effect, by providing the Contractor with written notice thereof.
2. Should the Contractor be adjudged bankrupt, or should the Contractor make a general assignment for the benefit of its creditors, or should a receiver be appointed on account of the Contractor's insolvency, the OSCE may, without prejudice to any other right or remedy available to it, terminate the Contract with immediate effect by providing the Contractor with written notice thereof.

3. The Contractor shall immediately give written notice to the OSCE of the occurrence of any circumstance known or likely to alter materially the Contractor’s legal or financial status, including but not limited to actual or pending liquidation, reorganization, change of ownership, insolvency or bankruptcy.

38. TERMINATION FOR FORCE MAJEURE

As soon as possible after the occurrence of any event constituting Force Majeure, but no later than 3 (three) Days, the Contractor shall give notice and full particulars in writing to the OSCE.
